

Article 9.

Violation Consequences.

§ 163A-415. Violation consequences.

(a) Violation of Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter by any covered person or legislative employee is grounds for disciplinary action. Except as specifically provided in Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter and for perjury under G.S. 163A-156 and G.S. 163A-189, no criminal penalty shall attach for any violation of Articles 5, 6, 7, or 9 of this Chapter.

(b) The willful failure of any public servant serving on a board to comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter is misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance. In the event of misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance, the offending public servant serving on a board is subject to removal from the board of which the public servant is a member. For appointees of the Governor and members of the Council of State, the appointing authority may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Speaker of the House of Representatives may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the General Assembly made upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Governor at the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the General Assembly made upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Governor at the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may remove the offending public servant. For public servants elected to a board by either the Senate or House of Representatives, the electing house of the General Assembly shall exercise the discretion of whether to remove the offending public servant. For all other appointees, the State Board shall exercise the discretion of whether to remove the offending public servant.

(c) The willful failure of any public servant serving as a State employee to comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter is a violation of a written work order, thereby permitting disciplinary action as allowed by the law, including termination from employment. For employees of State departments headed by a member of the Council of State, the appropriate member of the Council of State shall make all final decisions on the manner in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined. For public servants who are judicial employees, the Chief Justice shall make all final decisions on the matter in which the offending judicial employee shall be disciplined. For legislative employees, the Legislative Services Commission shall make or refer to the hiring authority all final decisions on the matter in which the offending legislative employee shall be disciplined. For public servants appointed or elected for The University of North Carolina or the Community Colleges System, the appointing or electing authority shall make all final decisions on the matter in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined. For any other public servant serving as a State employee, the Governor shall make all final decisions on the manner in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined.

(d) The willful failure of any constitutional officer of the State to comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter is malfeasance in office for purposes of G.S. 123-5.

(e) The willful failure of a legislator, other than the Lieutenant Governor, to comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Chapter is grounds for sanctions under G.S. 120-103.1.

(f) Nothing in this Subchapter affects the power of the State to prosecute any person for any violation of the criminal law.

(g) The State Board may seek to enjoin violations of G.S. 163A-214. (2006-201, s. 1; 2017-6, s. 3.)
